

Sabrina Seibel

(770) 377-8650 • 935 Lilac Arbor Road Dacula, GA 30019 • seibelsabrina@gatech.edu

EDUCATION

GEORGIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Atlanta, Georgia

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science 2020

GPA: 3.5

August 2016- Present

- Zell Miller Scholarship, HOPE Scholarship

DACULA HIGH SCHOOL

Dacula, Georgia

Honor Grad

GPA: 3.97/4.0

August 2012-May 2016

EXPERIENCE

GEORGIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Atlanta, Georgia

May 2016- Present

Responsibilities include work on the following projects:

Java E-book Project

- Serving as a Technical Documentation Contributor
- Creating instructional pages for Java E-book
- Developing training material to instruct entry level Java students

Sisters Rise Up Program

- Participated in program designed to increase the number of females majoring in computing fields
- Aiding webinars twice a week to tutor high school girls taking AP Computer Science
- Assisting monthly in-person sessions teaching Java

MYSTRO

Atlanta, Georgia

October 2016- Present

Tutor

- Startup company providing accessible tutors to High School students in Atlanta area

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

TAPIA CONFERENCE

Austin, TX

September 14-17, 2016

- Attended premier conference promoting and celebrating diversity in computing
- Participated in sessions highlighting the challenges facing and opportunities available to women in computing
- Learned how diversity in the workforce improves innovation versus solutions derived from restrictive homogenous perspectives

SKILLS

Languages: Python, Java, HTML/CSS/JavaScript

ACTIVITIES

Activities:

Georgia Tech:

- Sisters Rise Up Program, Project Rise Up Program, Filipino Student Association, Student Alumni Association

Dacula High School:

- Varsity Soccer, Varsity Track and Field, Varsity Cross-Country, and Varsity Football
 - First female football player in the 110-year history of Dacula High School